

Cost of telecommunication base stations in Israel

Overview

Israel has three main commercial daily newspapers: , and . Additionally, there are also two large : and (belongs to The Jerusalem Post). Other major newspapers include the Russian-language , the English-language The Jerusalem Post, etc.

What Cellcom plans are available in Israel?

As of this moment, there are three main Cellcom mobile plans available for subscribers in Israel: 700GB 5G Package: This offers 5,000 minutes and SMS per month, plus 500 minutes of international calls to over 40 countries and 700GB of data.

Is Israel ready to de-monopolize the telecommunications industry?

By the end of the decade, Israel boasted some of the world's lowest tariffs for cell phone and international calls. The government is now readying to de-monopolize basic telephone services, thereby opening the entire telecommunications sector to competition.

Why is telecommunication so popular in Israel?

This has made telecommunications widely and easily available to a population known for its enthusiastic approach to high technology. For more than three decades after the founding of the State in 1948, Israel's telephone network was owned and operated by a government ministry.

What phone companies are based in Israel?

Bezeq, Bezeq International, Pelephone, HOT Telecom, HOT Mobile, Cellcom, 013 NetVision, Partner (Formerly Orange), 012 Smile, Xfone, Golan Telecom (Electra Communications), Israel Broadband Company (IBC); Remi Levy, Mobile 019.

Is there a satellite TV company in Israel?

The Israeli satellite television provider Yes was established in 2000, introducing strong competition in the cable television market. Prior to the establishment of Yes there were only three other cable companies in Israel: Tevel, Matav and Arutzay Zahav.

How many commercial channels are there in Israel?

There are two commercial channels on Israeli television: Channel 2 and Channel 10. There also exist several niche channels which make their earnings from TV advertisements, such as: Israel Plus, Music 24, Channel 20 and the Israeli shopping channel.

Cost of telecommunication base stations in Israel

Telecommunications in Israel

OverviewPresent1940s-1960s1970s-1980s1990s2000s

Israel has three main commercial daily newspapers: Yedioth Ahronoth, Maariv and Haaretz. Additionally, there are also two large free daily newspapers: Israel Hayom and Israel Post (belongs to The Jerusalem Post). Other major newspapers include the Russian-language Vesti, the English-language The Jerusalem Post, etc.

A revolution in the world of cellular infrastructure in Israel: The

The reform that passed today in the Interior Committee will expand cellular coverage throughout the country and will alleviate the establishment of new cellular sites that ...

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://www.legnano.eu>